COVER STORY

REJUVENATING PKNS
FROM developer of affordable housing to mega builder, PKNS or the Selangor State Development Corporation is no longer the plodding state agency, with a mindset to match, that it once was. Remodelled and rebranded, it now stands up there with the country's leading property developers, hitching onto the profit motive and making no apologies for it. Still, despite its commendable progress, it has not lost sight of its original role as a social builder, always seeking to balance it with its new commercial thrust.
